

APEEJAY SCHOOL, SAKET HOSTS SRIJAN a CREATIVE EXPRESSIONS

New Delhi, November 10, 08, The Apeejay School, Saket hosted 'Srijan - creative expressions' on November 8, 2008. It showcased the creative talent of the students in myriad range of activities ranging from clay modeling to theatre, Maths activity, chess, art and craft, band, music, dance, eco-club and many more. All students from classes III to IX participated and did a splendid job of every activity. They enthusiastically prepared for the fest and whole heartedly presented their activities with excitement and enthusiasm.

The chief guest for the day Mr. Maheshwar Rao. Assistant Director Doordarshan and a well known vocalist was thoroughly impressed with the effort and ability of the students, he further encouraged the students with his inspiring words and lauded the school for arranging such a creative fest which unearthed a treasure house of potential.

These projects were a result of tireless hard work of students under the guidance of the teachers and these efforts were reciprocated by the appreciation received by the parents and other visitors who were clearly impressed by the work and the amount of talent the students possessed.
